

Enrollment form

Application Number (as printed on your admission notice):

If you have been registered at the University of Hildesheim already: Please indicate your former student ID number:

Health Insurance:

The proof of your health insurance has to be transmitted electronically. To do this, you need to contact your insurance company and request the so-called "Meldung 10" (M10). You need to specify the University's ID: H0000707 The insurance company will transmit your proof of insurance to the university. If you are insured with a private company, please contact any public insurance company and request the "Meldung 10" (M10). They will notify the university about your exemption of public health insurance. A paper-based proof is not valid anymore and cannot be accepted.

Please note that the names you give to the health insurance company must match the names in our system.

Please observe the following:

Please fill in this form in a clear and readable way.
